

TAYLOR ALLEN, ILLUSTRATOR, BIO

Taylor Allen is from Texas, but currently based in the Rocky Mountains. She graduated from the BYU animation program, where she honed her artistic skills. She's currently looking to start a career in the video game industry, ideally making concept art for games full-time. She's loved drawing ever since she was little, but her other hobbies include singing and playing ukulele. Her wonderful, supportive family and boyfriend have encouraged her to pursue her aspirations, and she's forever grateful.
