

Dear Parent,

Thank you for reading with your child! The Little-Known Heroes series was designed for parents and children to read together, with three purposes in mind:

1. For children to see heroes who look like them (or perhaps, more importantly, who don't look like them)
2. For children to see heroes they can emulate in real people instead of fictional superheroes
3. To ease the process for you and your child to discuss difficult topics

To help enrich your discussion of difficult - yet important - topics with your child, follow the QR code below or go to thelittleknownheroes.com.

You'll find resources we've put together for you to learn more about Claudette and her story, as well as how to talk to your child about racism.

L K H
CLAUDETTE COLVIN

Claudette Colvin was smart and pretty, although she was a little shy. She loved going to her church, and even loved going to school; she got straight A's every time!

Everything might've been fun and easy for Claudette, except that she was African American with dark-colored skin, and lived in Montgomery, Alabama.

